Pack 229 Lines Up For Fun, Inspection

By Miriam Johnson

INSPECTION! Cub Scouts lined up at Pack 229's first meeting of the year for careful measuring of location of badges, seeing that socks were the proper navy blue and that nails were clean, as well as other detailed checking to further encourage the boys for having done those things correctly. What better way to impress upon them the pleasure of observing a rule than for them to see how smart they appear when all have the same Cub Scout belt and buckle on when all are assembled together.

Fun in the form of a novel string game in which the players suddenly found themselves all tied up was also enjoyed by the boys in blue and gold. It made it all the more hilarious when some of the participants had to have help in being unwound, so Bob Halpin could take his twine home for more prosaic uses.

Boys between the ages of 8 and 11 are welcome to register in the pack. Their mothers will enjoy the valuable experience of being Den Mothers, as there is no better way to understand one's own boy than seeing him among his contemporaries. Would-be Cub Scouts are asked to call Greenbelt 3492.

Sanford Cornett, newly elected Committee Chairman who is also secretary of the sponsoring institution, the Greenbelt Athletic Club, was introduced to the Pack and parents attending the meeting. Chris Mulladay is in charge of Advancement and Awards; John Pinkos is treasurer; Richard Bridge is in charge of Activities. Cubmaster Ted Graves was absent so Assistant Cubmaster Robert Halpin directed the meeting.

New Cubs entering the Pack who received their Bobcat pins at this meeting were Martin Berkofsky, Terry Bing, Albert Folkman, John Stanley Provost and Anthony Ragazzo. Boys who received other awards were the following: Ray Enzor, Wolf pin and Gold Arrow; Douglas Zier, Wolf Pin and Gold Arrow; Billy Evers, Wolf and Bear Pin with Gold and Silver Arrow; Michael Pinkos, Wolf Pin; Patrick Mulladay, Wolf Pin; Michael Patrick and Sandor Johnson, Gold and Silver Arrows, Paul Greene, Billy Edwards and Robert Edmunds received their Webelos Badges.

Den Mothers and their assistants were introduced at the meeting, as follows: Den 1, Mrs. Betty Reznickoff and Mrs. Arthur Greene; Den 2, Mrs. Adrienne Bing and Mrs. S. Ragazzo; Mrs. S. Provost; Den 3, Mrs. Dorothy Graves and Mrs. W. Behrens; Den 4, Mrs. Marcia Halpin and Mrs. Jean White; Den 5, Mrs. Rosemary Bridge and Mrs. Ann Citron; Den 6, Mrs. Beth Day and Mrs. L. Cozad; Den 7, Mrs. Margaret Mulladay and Mrs. S. Cunningham; Pack Historian, Mrs. Delores Baxter; Publicity Chairman, Mrs. Miriam G. Johnson.

Democrats Hold Home Rule Meeting

At the October 15 meeting of the Greenbelt Democratic Club, both sides of the question of home rule government for Prince Georges County will be presented to the public, less than a month before its appearance on the ballot in November.

Harold Sothoron and Nicholas Orem, prominent leaders in the county, will be guest speakers prefacing a question-and-answer period.

The meeting will start at 8 p.m. at the American Legion Home. All residents of Greenbelt are invited to attend.

Scouts Sponsor Illustrated Talks By Audubon Aces

Under the auspices of the Greenbelt Boy Scouts and Girl Scouts, the Audubon Society of Washington will present a series of illustrated lectures on birds in Greenbelt. These lectures will feature talks, movies, color slides and recordings of birds - their habits, habitats and songs - by several members of the Society. First of the season will take place Tuesday, October 14, at 7:30 p.m., in the Greenbelt Theatre. It is entitled "Landscaping for Birds", a color slide and motion picture presentation by Dr. Irston Barnes. Although there will be no admission charge, no one except Scouts, their parents, and their leaders will be admitted to the theatre until after 7:20 p.m., so as to insure that all Scouts who wish to attend may do so. After 7:20 the doors will be opened to as many other bird-lovers as space permits. A colorful opening ceremony is planned for the first lecture and several city officials will be present to participate in this ceremony.

Future lectures will be held on November 6, December 2, January 13, and February 3. The exact order of the remaining lectures has not been determined as yet, but their titles, types of illustrations, and the lecturers are as follows:

"Behind the Flyways" - a motion picture by Dr. Clarence Cottam
"Attracting Birds to Feeding Stations" - Color slides by Chris A. Mathisen

"Birds of the Washington Region" - a movie by Ralph E. Lawrence or J. Donald Sutherland.

"Enjoying Bird Songs" - Recordings and slides by Mrs. Roger Peterson.

The lecturers are donating their time, talents and equipment and the Scouts and other bird lovers can show their appreciation by making it a "full house" attendance. GCS is cooperating by donating the use of the theatre.

Theatre Revives Art Picture Program Wed. With "The River"

According to an announcement this week by manager Ross Wheeler, the Greenbelt Theatre is reviving its "art" picture programs for the second time in several years.

The "Curtain at Eight" performances will begin next Wednesday, October 15, with the outstanding motion picture of national fame "The River," featuring Arthur Shields, and acclaimed by critics and audiences as one of the finest pictures ever produced. The box office will open promptly at 7:30 p.m. and the program will start at 8 on this and subsequent "Curtain at Eight" Wednesday shows. Admission will be fifty cents for every member of the audience.

"We are going to be very discriminating in our selections," Wheeler said, "and if we are unable to schedule a picture worthy of this policy, we will pass up the showing that particular week." A few of the attractions already lined up for the Wednesday curtain-raisers are: Walk East on Beacon, En-core, High Treason, O'Henry's Full House, Miracle in Milan and similarly artistic productions.

In order to insure quiet in the auditorium during the performances, the concession stand will be closed on Wednesday evenings.

GVHC Studies Wages, Tenancy

GVHC directors are currently concerned with a new wage schedule, intended for use after December 31, when the cooperative takes over Greenbelt. At present the temporary maximum wage for clerical employees is $1.50 an hour.

According to a report from Thomas Ritchie, treasurer, loans are available from both the local bank and the credit union from members lacking cash for their down payments.

Negotiations with PHA are still under way concerning the selection of tenants for vacant houses and on maintenance of huoses requiring repairs.

Library Receives 54-Volume Set

The Greenbelt Public library at the Center School will shortly receive a set of the 54-volume Great Books of the Western World, regarded by its publishers as the largest and perhaps the most significant publishing venture of the 20th century.

This set, produced jointly by Encyclopaedia Britannica, Inc., and the University of Chicago, comprises 443 works by 74 authors, from Homer to the present, who are deemed best to embody the Western tradition—its fundamental ideas and basic arguments.

The key to the set is a new reference work, the two-volume Syn-topicon, so-called because it provides orderly access to the topics which are the great themes of Western thought. It is the result of more than seven years work by more than 100 scholars. Classified under 102 "Great Ideas," the Syn-topicon contains 163,000 references to passages in the Great Books themselves.

By means of the Syn-topicon, a reader can trace the discussion of any idea through all the authors in the set. He can thus follow what the editors call "the great conversation." Though often separated by centuries, the great minds of Western civilization dealt with the same basic problems which confront men always and everywhere and the great conversation results from their common discussion of these basic problems from every variety of point of view.

The publishers describe the Syn-topicon as a third basic reference work, comparable to the dictionary and the encyclopaedia. They point out that the Syn-topicon operates in the field of ideas as the dictionary does in the field of words and the encyclopaedia in the field of facts.

Publisher of Great Books of the Western World is Senator William Benton, who is publisher and chairman of the board of Encyclopaedia Britannica, Inc. Former Chancellor Robert M. Hutchins of the University of Chicago, who is now associate director of the Ford Foundation, is editor-in-chief of the set. Mortimer J. Adler, now director of the Institute for Philosophical Research, is associate editor and was responsible for the production of the Syn-topicon.

Production of the set was begun in 1943 under an agreement between Mr. Hutchins and Senator Benton, whereby Britannica undertook to produce the set in collaboration with the University of Chicago, with which Britannica is affiliated. The editorial work and initial production was completed at a cost of more than $2,000,000.

According to Mr. Hutchins, "This is more than a set of books. It is a liberal education . . . and we know liberal education is a matter of a lifetime."

Red Feather Rhyme

By Miriam Johnson

Contribute, though it be a token,
Community Chest needs have spoken!

Husbands may donate where they work,
But the town they live in must not shirk!

These Greenbelt agencies use the Chest
So assuredly deserve your generous best:

Boy Scouts, Girl Scouts, Campfire Girls, too,
Catholic Charities, Hospitalization Fund,

Planning Council (we're still not through!)
Social Service League, YMCA and the old USO,

Newly entitled the United Defense Fund.
The names we need not perfectly rhyme,

Just so we remember their wants in time!

Dedication Coincides With Harvest Holiday

The dedication of the Torah under the benediction of Rabbi C. H. Waldman on Sunday night, marked a milestone in the development of a communal religious life of the Jewish Community Center of Greenbelt.

The Torah, heartbeat of Judaism and the foundation of Western civilization, consists of the five books of Moses which contain the ethical and spiritual code of the Hebrews and also includes the Ten Commandments. Each one is completely written by hand and took a year to prepare. Historians note that it is the same text as used in Israel in the pre-Christian era.

In previous religious holiday observances, the JCC used the Sacred Scroll loaned to them by another congregation.

This occasion was made doubly significant by the celebration of the Succoth holiday, which marks the gathering of the harvest. Young Martin Berkofsky played several piano selections including two original pieces that he composed. Mrs. Ethel Gerring, accompanied three numbers. Refreshments were by Mrs. Gladys Chasnoff, sang served.

Everybody Get Into the Act

Once more GCS has held a quorumless meeting. The question comes to mind: Would an informed membership have come? The only information members get is a mass of statistics at the meeting. Board members appear reluctant to "trouble" the membership with the mechanics of operating a cooperative.

We believe this policy relegates members to the role of an audience at a rehearsed play. In a dynamic cooperative the entire membership is in the cast. A board responsive to the membership presents tangible issues rather than academic questions - issues such as management's preoccupation with expansion. This type of discussion would reveal the internal machinery of our cooperative to the members who must resume their proper function of deciding basic policies.

Letters To The Editor

BARPECUE HONOR ROLL

(Ed. note: Space limitations permit mentioning only the names in Mrs. Harper's fine long letter about the people who worked on the Co-op Barbecue.)

Thanks to Potomac Cooperative Federation for the idea and the financial backing; to GCS for its staff and donations; Helmuth Kern, planning committee chairman; Dave Scull, City manager McDonald, Police Chief Panagoulis, Pappy Sines, Donny Wolfe, Sam Ashelman and Bassett Ferguson, Ruth Taylor, Pete Caruso. Thanks to the boys in the store, to Mrs. Townsend, Jim Smith (barbecuer extraordinaire), Charlie Planck and his wife, Ben Rosenzweig, George Davidsen, Reuben Bogdanoff, Virginia McLeod and Miss Planck of Virginia; to Eva Kern, Walter Bierwagen, Jean Putnam, Henry Walter, Bob Volckhausen, George Reeves, Bob Broadbent and my Gail; the Hampton group, Ellie Ritchie, Don Edwards, the Legion, Pearsons Liquor Annex, Wilkins and the farmers who lent their ket-tles.

It seems everyone in town and in the whole area went all out to help our first big outdoor co-op affair to be fun.

With our own Federation and wholesale and our own stores and fine friends and neighbors, we can do most anything we undertake to do. Entering into our busy season with such a friendly feeling should bring us a prosperous year. Thanks to all.

CARNIE O. HARPER

GCS IRON CURTAIN?

There have been many rumors to the effect that the GCS management has been pushing a plan whereby a food store chain in Metropolitan Washington would be taken over by the local Cooperatives.

If these rumors are true, many questions are raised:

1. Why the secrecy?
2. Why did the GCS management push the plan?
3. Why must Co-ops be built from the top down, an undemocratic process?
4. Does the GCS management have any other expansion ideas or plans? If so, what are they?

"JOIN A CHURCH"

To curb moral delinquency and help the moral re-armament program let the public know there are churches they may join and be baptized any day. This is too important to be relegated to one day a week. Joining a church is a personal matter between the person and God; it does not have to be a public affair.

Many people are self-conscious about doing things in public and do not join.

WILLIAM R. SULLIVAN

BURNS - OURAND

St. Hugh's Church was the scene Saturday, September 27, of the wedding of Mary D. Burns, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Hugh P. Burns, and James E. Ourand, son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles R. Ourand. Rev. V. J. Dowgiallo officiated at the ceremony and celebrated the Nuptial Mass. The bride was escorted by her father, and wore a gown of lace and net. Her veil of illusion was held by a Juliet cap of imported lace. She carried an orchid on a white prayer book. She wore a pearl necklace, a gift of the groom. She carried the handkerchief carried by her mother at her wedding.

Miss Diane Burns of Woodside, Long Island was maid of honor. Bridesmaids were Mrs. Edward O'Connell of Norfolk, and Miss Jean Lloyd of Richmond. They wore gowns of lace and net and carried muffs decorated with flowers. Henry McFarland served as best man. Ushers included Thomas Freeman, James Sommers, Danny Jones, Robert Cookson, and Charles R. Ourand, Jr., all of Greenbelt. The St. Hugh's Choir sang during the Mass. Hugh Burns, brother of the bride, and Jay Gallagher served as altar boys. After a reception at the American Legion Home, Mr. and Mrs. Ourand left for a trip to Virginia Beach.

Joash Chest Filled In Sunday Offering

The Joash Chest Service at Community Church last Sunday was most successful and inspiring, according to a report from Miss E. Goetze, secretary. As the congregations, led at both 9 and 11 o'clock by the children of the Sunday School, passed by the Chinese chest (loaned again by Mrs. Ann Martone), symbolic of the historic chest of King Joash, they made the largest offering of any Sunday congregation in the history of the church. The total offering, exceeding $2,200, which has been dedicated to the beginning of the new building for the church school and youth programs, is regarded as incomplete since a number of members and friends unable to be present at the service are expected to be heard from during the coming week. Envelopes for special gifts toward the new building will be available throughout October.

St. Hugh's Benefit Dance

Mrs. James Flynn, in charge of tickets for the benefit dance to be sponsored by the Sodality of St. Hugh's Catholic Church on October 24, announces that tickets will be placed on sale this week. Proceeds from this event, which features Howard Devron and his orchestra, will go to the building fund for the church and school.

A social hour and refreshments will follow the meeting. All members and friends are invited to attend.

The Greenbelt section of Council will join with sections in 244 communities all over the country on October 18 in celebrating the organization's 59th birthday. This event is known as COUNCIL DAY and the occasion will be observed over the local networks.

NCJW is sponsoring the movie "Foreign Legion" starring Abbott and Costello on Thursday, October 16 at the Greenbelt Theatre at 2:30 p.m. Tickets will be sold by members and at the door. Further information is obtainable from Mrs. Ryss, 5841; Mrs. Schein, 3626; Mrs. Tannenbaum, 7957.

Serving for the non-profit fellowship supper will begin at 4:30 on the church grounds at Hillside and Crescent roads.

Boy's Club Activities

By Lee

Football opened up last weekend with all teams playing except the 128lb. The 90lb. lost two exhibition games. One Saturday to Bladensburg and one Sunday to University Park, these are practically all new boys and need a little of skirmish work yet to smooth them out and teach them how to play the game. They will do all right in their weight class when their league opens up this Saturday. The 150lb. team won an exhibition at Marlborough Saturday and the 150lb. lost their first league game to Oxon Hill Sunday at Braden Field 19 to 7. Mr. Soo has not released the schedule as yet, so I have no information on where the teams will play this weekend, but there will be a game in each weight division. The 90lb, 105lb and 128lb teams play on Saturday with the 90 lbs at 9:30 a.m., the 105lb at 11:30 a.m. and the 128lb at 1:30 p.m. The 150 lb team plays at 2:30 p.m. Sunday. It is probable that one or more of the games will be here at Braden Field. The boys on the teams will know later on in the week.

Again - you fellows who are entitled to letters or medals in track, come down to the Center School Saturday morning at 10 a.m. Ben Goldfaden has the medals and will give them out. Also: intermediate ball players who have not turned in their uniforms yet are to bring them down to the school this Saturday morning. This is the last chance, so get them in. See you next week.

Unusual Buy at Co-op Supermarket
The supermarket has been selling canned peas at a real bargain price. For ten cents you get a pound can of early June peas that are quite good. The brand is "Tender Bud".

Toast That Can't Be Beat

If you like crispy toast there is nothing like Co-op Bread. When eaten untoasted, it has an excellent chewy taste.

Progress in Co-op Groceries

Sharp shoppers have been commenting on the improved competitive position of the GCS Supermarket, since the opening of the Takoma Supermarket. Another indication of benefit is the report of Potomac Cooperators, the grocery wholesale for co-ops in this area. In the year ended December 30, 1950, it cost 5.2 percent to buy and distribute groceries. The next year this dropped to 4.0 percent. The Takoma store made a big difference. The Fairlington co-op in Virginia is planning to open another store in Falls Church, that will be slightly larger than either of the GCS stores. This increased volume, it is predicted, may enable the wholesale to operate at about 3 percent.

The Greenbelt Lions-Coop basketball team will hold practice every Tuesday, Thursday, and Friday evenings during October in the Center school gym at 8 p.m. All men over eighteen are invited to try out.

Lions Club to be Hosts

The Greenbelt Lions Club will play host to the annual Greenbelt Men's Banquet on Monday, October 27 at 6:30 p.m. in the Community Church. This annual get-together has proved a source of fun and good-fellowship over the years for the men of Greenbelt, and has provided an incomparable opportunity for the renewal of friendship and the fostering of new friendships.

The program will include a turkey dinner served by the Evening Guild, music and singing, and a well-known speaker. All men of Greenbelt are invited to attend.

My Daze

Probably the most agonizing feat for women is earning a driver's license. Perfect marriages are shaken in the process if the husband elects to help her acquire it by teaching her to drive. It is the rare man who doesn't "blow his top" at some point during practice sessions. Even the gentlest male cannot resist ugly comments on her inability to ack up straight or in the direction called for, or her knack of stalling in traffic just as the light turns green, or racing the motor, or steering too far right or left in simple driving, ad infinitum. His highly critical attitude lingers on after that unbelievable day when the drivers test is passed; only now his wife is at liberty to leave him at home as she tries out her independence. She can do errands formerly assumed by him, and can do more outside the home for the community or herself. If she is sufficiently safety-conscious, the new driving skill can be a great source of pleasure and convenience. With the license goes responsibility, however. Some husbands reason, as mine does, that if I share the car with him I must also remember to get gas, get the oil changed, help Simoniz it periodically, etc. I've been at it almost two years. My husband has confidence in me when I'm at the wheel, yet now and then he'll insist I'm starting in third gear when I know I'm not. So what if the car bumps a bit on the takeoff! Many Greenbelt residents will be contributing to the Community Chest drive at their work, but Greenbelt has its own quota to fill. The small sum of a dollar or under tendered the neighbor who is collecting for the Chest in our area would therefore be extremely helpful.

"The operator's voice calmed me..."

"It was late at night when I suddenly became ill. I managed to get to the telephone to call my husband who was working. But I was too weak, too ill, to do anything but gasp out my name to the operator. I remember the calm strength in her voice as she said: 'Don't worry. Help is on its way.' Not only did she call a doctor, but also some neighbors. Soon, I was all right, thanks to the helpfulness of that fast-thinking telephone operator!"
